

A scenic landscape at sunset. A dirt path leads from the foreground into the distance, flanked by green fields and bushes. In the background, there are rolling hills under a sky with a bright, low sun creating a warm, golden glow. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

It Is Enough

I cannot be poor if I am in Christ,
In Him I am full and abound.
Though everything else should all pass away,
I'm rich if in Him I am found.

It is enough that I am in Christ,
Enough that His mercy I see.
It is enough that I taste of His grace,
Enough that His love has found me.

Pursue not this world, its wisdom and ways;
Contentment eludes those who try.
For all in this world is fading away,
And soon will all wither and die.

What profits a man if he gains the world,
Yet loses his soul in the end?
And what will the joys of this life be worth,
If you face the judgment condemned?

If I am in Christ, I have all I need,
Adopted and loved as a son.
It will be enough that I see my Lord,
And hear Him say to me: "Well done."
